

The Gathering Song

Written by Foster Brown © 2010

You are here, I am here, and we're all here together.
Friends and neighbors gather close - like birds of the same feather.
Whether you are old or young or your hair is salt and peppered
Clap your hands, join the fun - let's make our lives much better.

Put on a smile, stay a while and loosen up your shoes.
Let down your hair, toss off you cares, let's sing a song or two.

I've tuned my strings, I've warmed my voice, I've got a list of songs.
All I need for you to do is clap and sing along.
You've gathered 'round, you've all sat down and you're ready for some tunes.
Cast off your cares, join in and share a happy, joyful croon.

Take off your coat, clear your throat and get ready to sing.
Settle in and start to grin - let's make this whole room ring!

Put on a smile, stay a while and loosen up your shoes.
Let down your hair, toss off you cares, let's sing a song or two.
Take off your coat, clear your throat and get ready to sing.
Settle in and start to grin - let's make this whole room ring!

